Phillip Langland

I am a full stack web developer aspiring to advance my knowledge of software development and create innovative programs that provide users with efficient and creative applications.

WORK EXPERIENCE

KATRINA LANGLAND PHOTOGRAPHY, LLC., Birmingham, Alabama

Present
Jul 2016

IT Support Specialist

- Managed functionality of company's website and suggested optimization for user-friendly design
- Answer user inquiries regarding computer software or hardware operation to resolve problems
- Quickly problem solve technical issues to promptly provide clients with complete orders and services
- Set up equipment for employee use, performing or ensuring proper installation of cables, operating systems, or appropriate software

EDUCATION

Present
Apr 2018

COVALENCE, Birmingham, Alabama
Full Stack Development Bootcamp Graduate

2013-2016

AUBURN UNIVERSITY, Auburn, Alabama
Completed major coursework towards Industrial Systems Engineering

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT

- Proficient knowledge of Javascript(ES6), HTML5, CSS3, NodeJS, Python, and SQL along with standard object-oriented design principles
- Able to integrate tools and libraries such as Git, Bootstrap4, SASS, JQuery, NPM/Yarn, ExpressJS, APIs, webpack, and babel to improve code design and efficiency
- Experience in designing and creating integrated and protected REST APIs on custom EXPRESS servers using token authorization techniques along with hashing and salting on the back-end
- Specialized in using the REACT framework to create full-stack web applications and experience using REACT NATIVE to create native mobile applications
- Able to utilize agile development methods like SCRUM to optimize workflow and productivity

PORTFOLIO

- Check out some of my projects: https://github.com/phillipjhl